REVIEW OF THE WEEK.

During the past week the long quiet of the army before Richmond has been broken and we hear of another advance by a portion of Gen. Grant's army. Sherman has occupied in turn both Fayetteville and Goldsboro. Sheridan is remounting his command and will soon be on the rampage again. There seems to be activity everywhere among the armies and the prospect looks brighter and brighter with every new report.

On Saturday last an advance was made by two corps of Grant's army upon the enemy's works in their front resulting in the capture of their entrenchments and 1900 prisoners. The rebels also attacked and captured Fort Steadman near the Appomattox River taking prisoners nearly all its garrison who eventually escaped and came back to our lines.

Later in the day the battle became more general, and it is reported that over 2,000 more prisoners were taken. The rebel rifle pits captured are said to have been capable of holding 20,000 men, but the troops seemed in many cases to prefer being captured, and it was noticed generally that there was not the old time energy and precision of firing.

Gen. Sherman's army is pressing northward augmented by Terry and Schofield's forces, and doubly strong with the prestige of victory. He is reported to have said that if not checked at Goldsboro nothing could stop him and that he considered the game up with the rebels.

Gold closed in N. Y. Thursday at 152 1/2 many failures are reported.

Jeff. Davis' message sent to the closing Rebel Congress gives a sorry account of the condition of the Confederacy and acknowledges Richmond to be in greater danger than at any time previous during the war. He considers it in the power of that body to avert the threatening evils by enacting a more sweeping conscription law and impressment of supplies, which are failing them. He thinks it an impossibility for them to pay $50 per bushel for corn, and $700 per bbl for flour, and suggests that it would be more just & appropriate to estimate the supplies impressed at their value in coin.

He suggests also that the writ of habeas corpus be suspended, and that greater powers be given those in authority to call out the Militia, and thinks "With the prompt adoption of the measures above recommended, and the united and hearty co-operation of Congress and the people in the execution of the laws and the defense of the country, we may enter upon the present campaign with cheerful confidence in the result."

Owing to the great damage done the Rail Roads by spring freshets and the mud blockade between here and LaCrosse and particularly the very little disposition some contractors have to accommodate the public of this benighted region, no through mail from Chicago and the east has been received here since Tuesday the 21st. We are glad to notice that Gov. Miller has written to the Postmaster General protesting against such management. The break in the Milwaukee and La Crosse road was only 15 miles across and they allowed "the mail matter to accumulate so that the mail now coming up the river fills 361 bags and weighs several tons."

NAVIGATION.

LA CROSSE, March, 29 8. P. M.
The river is about clear here. The steamer Annie Johnson starts up tomorrow morning with mails, express and passengers.

HASTINGS, March 29, 8. P. M.
The river is all open from Prescott down, but there is two and a half feet of ice at this point. Stages are still crossing at this place. There is very little ice between Carl's Warehouse and Prescott.

LAKE CITY, 29th, 8. P. M.
The lake shows no signs of clearing out. The ice is 30 inches thick, and houses are being moved upon it. Old residents say, unless strong south winds and rain prevail, the lake will not be open for at least three weeks to come.

BATTLE NEAR PETERSBURG

CITY POINT, March 25.

News has just reached here of an attack on our lines this morning at daylight by the enemy, at Fort Steadman, near the Appomattox river, capturing the fort and taking prisoners nearly all its garrison. They sent these prisoners over the works toward their lines, but on their way they broke from the guard and nearly all escaped back to our line on each side of our works. The line each side of the fort was taken, and held for a short time by the rebels, but reinforcements arrived and they were driven back, losing heavily in killed and wounded as they ran between the lines. Our loss is not known at this hour, but it is believed to be small. The line is now reported to be established as formerly.

OFFICIAL

The following dispatches were received at the War Department, the 27th ult.

CITY POINT MARCH 27th

The battle of the 25th resulted in the following losses on our side:

Second Corps—Killed, 51; wounded, 462; missing, 302.
Ninth Corps—Killed, 68; wounded, 338; missing, 506.

Our captures by the Second Corps were 361.

By the Sixth Corps, 469.

By the Ninth Corps, 1049.

The 2d and 6th Corps pushed forward and captured the enemy's strong entrenchments and turned its guns against him and still hold it. In trying to retake this the battle was continued until 8 o'clock at night, the enemy losing very heavily.

Humphreys estimated the loss of the enemy in his front at three times his own; and Gen. Wright, in his front, as double that of ours.

The enemy brought in a flag of truce for permission to collect his dead, which were between their picket line and their main line of fortifications. Permission was granted.

U. S. GRANT, Lieutenant General.

SECOND DISPATCH.

CITY POINT, Va., March 27.

Hon. E. M. STANTON.

I am in receipt of Sherman's report of operations from the time he left Fayetteville up to the 22d inst. It shows he had fighting resulting in very heavy loss to the enemy in killed and wounded, and over 2,000 prisoners in our hands.

His own loss, he says, will be covered by 2,500 men since he left Savannah. Many of them are but slightly wounded.

U. S. GRANT, Lieutenant General.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Condition of the Rebels.

NEW YORK, March 25.

A Washington correspondent makes a series of revelations, for which he vouches, concerning the rebel confederacy of very important nature. He says the total available military force of the rebels is 152,000—the figures being taken from rolls in the rebel department on February 4th.

Mr. Stephens looks upon further efforts on the part of Confederate States for negotiations, or to carry on the war as futile and unjust to the people and States.

Deep gloom prevails at Richmond and every body seems to feel that the day of reckoning has come.

The Richmond Enquirer says the conscription of negroes goes on with difficulty. Guards are stationed at every camp and yet the negroes escape. There is a great panic among the blacks, and as much reluctance among the whites upon the question of arming the slaves.

The Dispatch repeats that Kirby Smith has 25,000 negro troops organized and armed.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

PHILADELPHIA, March 27.—A special dispatch to the Philadelphia Bulletin from Washington says a special messenger who left Goldsboro, N. C., on the 22d, arrived here to-day, reports the occupation of that place by Schofield's forces. He also brings the information that Sherman formed a junction with Schofield and Terry at Cope's Bridge on the Neuse River and a few miles west of Goldsboro on the 21st.

The 14th corps' correspondent says that Sherman had a fight with Hardee at Averysboro on the 16th inst., in which the latter was handsomely defeated, leaving all his dead and wounded in General Davis' hands retreating to Bentonville.

At Bentonville on Sunday, the 19th, one division of the 14th corps was attacked by Johnson, and for a while driven back, but on being reinforced by the rest of the corps, drove the enemy, and during the night he abandoned Bentonville and fell back across the Neuse to Smithfield, some ten miles west of Goldsboro. It is only the temporary success in the first part of fight which the rebels are boasting over as a great victory.

Sherman's loss will not exceed 1,000. The army is in excellent condition.

Sherman had notified Schofield that he would be in Goldsboro on the 22nd, and he kept his word. Some of his staff were there that day.

After his repulse at Bentonville, Joe Johnson fell back to Smithville to cover Raleigh.

FROM GEN. SHERIDAN.

FORT MONROE, March 26.

Gen. Sheridan's troops are in the very best condition, and appear to have suffered little or nothing from the effects of their long march from Winchester.

About 300 rebel prisoners are at White House, together with some 3,000 negroes, who followed the troops as they passed through the country. A large number of prisoners were captured during the raid, but, owing to the rapidity of Sheridan's movements, many of them had to be abandoned and others made their escape, owing to the relaxed vigilance of their guards who were glad to get rid of them.

The entire cavalry force crossed to the south bank of the Pamunkey river; and is now engaged in recruiting preparations for new movements.

The rebel Gen. Longstreet, with his corps, is supposed to be lurking in the vicinity of White House, for, on the evening of the arrival of Sheridan at that place, frequent skirmishes occurred between his advance pickets and unknown small squads of the enemy, who appeared to be prowling about for reconnoitering purposes.

REBEL BATTLE FLAGS

WASHINGTON, March 21.

Maj. Compton, and other officers and men of Gen. Custar's division, appeared at the War Department to-day, with seventeen rebel battle flags captured by them at Waynesboro and Charlottesville, in Sheridan's late victory over Early. They each gave a narrative of the capture of the respective flags, and were thanked in the name of the President and people of the United States, for the gallantry and courage which from the beginning had been displayed by themselves and the command to which they were attached.

This is the fourth time flags have been presented which were taken by Sheridan's command. In accordance with a request of Gen. Custar, leaves and furloughs will be given to the captors. The amount of money now due will be paid to them, and each will be awarded a medal of honor.

DIED.

In Excess March 9th George T. Son of George and Eliza Galpin. Aged 17 years and 3 months.

The ice commenced running Wednesday evening and the river is now clear as far up as Carver. The water continues to rise, but very slowly, and unless we have heavy rains soon will hardly make its incursion upon our quiet village which so many have predicted. We hope to see the boats running within another week.

E. Walton of Carver will close out the remainder of his stock of goods at auction commencing on Wednesday the 3d inst. at 10 o'clock.

We have just received several pieces of sheet music from the enterprising firm of Root & Cady, Music Dealers and Publishers of Chicago and St. Paul, among which are the fine patriotic songs, "Marching through Georgia," "The Prisoners Hope," "The Wounded Bay at Kenesaw," and one very opportune for these times of victory, "Ring the Bell, Watchman." We would recommend those wishing to purchase Music or Musical Instruments to call on them at their Music Rooms, No 109 Third Street, St. Paul, where can always be found the latest and best. Their stock is much the largest and most varied to be found in the Northwest.

The notorious female spy Mrs. B. S. Judd of Chanhassen in this County who served under John Morgan in Tennessee and Kentucky about the time of his raid into Indiana and Ohio was captured and confined in Alton State Prison nearly a year and released on condition that she would come to Minnesota and remain during the continuance of the war; has recently been caught at her old tricks again in Kentucky and is now confined in the Military Prison at Louisville Ky., awaiting trial.

Colonel Averill has received a telegram from the War Department stating that Indians cannot be received as volunteers. He had previously been notified that they would not be taken as substitutes.

Latest advices from the Pineries are of the most encouraging character. Some of the brooks are now open, and the lumbermen have commenced driving. There cannot be any doubt entertained about the logs coming this time.

State Atlas 29th.

On Sunday last the Shakopee distillery was consumed. It was a fine stone building half a mile above town, on the Belle Plaine road, and contained a considerable amount of liquor, a part of which was saved, besides 300 bushels of rye which was lost. The cause of the fire is not known, but is supposed to have taken from the stove in which there was, fire the day before. It belonged to Cheever, Esq., of this place, and was insured for $1,500.

On the evening of Tuesday last a house belonging to C. Kates, Esq., near the distillery, on the opposite side of the river, was destroyed by fire. We have not learned any of the particulars, further than that it was insured for $300.

The proprietors of the Mankato Mills are now retailing flour at their Mills at $3 per hundred and wholesaling at $2.75.

The price paid for wheat is 65 cents per bushel.

A petition for the organization of the new town of Rapidan, situated on the western border of the Winnebago reservation, will be presented to the county board at its next meeting.

Mankato Record, 25th.

Straight river is on a big spree, and is cutting some awful "swells." The water is higher than has been known for many years. The flat west of the river is one entire sheet of water, the wind and current causing the white caps to make their appearance. The water is nearly four feet deep west of the bridge for some rods, and had it not been for cold weather setting in, preventing its further rise, it would probably have swept every bridge on the stream.

FREIGHT TARIFF ON THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER.

The Chicago Tribune of Saturday the 25th inst., says that "at a meeting of the representatives of the railway and steamboat lines, held in this city, the following tariff of rates was adopted, to take effect on the opening of navigation, on the Mississippi river:

Between terminal rail-road points on river and Winona	On Grain	On Flour
Trempealeau	10 cts	35 cts
Fountain City	10 "	35 "
Minneapolis	10 "	35 "
Alma	12 "	45 "
Wabashaw	12 "	45 "
Reeds Landing	13 "	50 "
Lake City	13 "	50 "
Waconia	13 "	50 "
Red Wing	13 "	50 "
Prescott	14 "	55 "
Hastings	14 "	55 "
Nininger	15 "	60 "
St. Paul	15 "	60 "

Railroad rates to Milwaukee, Racine and Chicago—On Grain 20 cents per bushel, and on Flour 65 cents per barrel. Adding to this the freight on the Minnesota river which probably will not be less than 10 cents for all grain below the Rapids, making 45 cents to Milwaukee and with wheat at 1.12 as per last quotation at that city, our farmers in the Minnesota Valley could not realize more than 45 to 50 cents for their grain. Unless this combination between the different companies on the river and the Rail Roads is broken up, it will pay much better to feed grain out to stock, as all kinds of meats are high and must remain so for the present, and stock can be taken to market without being obliged to pay all the profits for transportation.

From estimates obtained at the several warehouses in this city, we learn that there is now in store here 240,000 bushels of wheat, 15,500 bushels of barley, and 13,000 bushels of oats—in all 268,500 bushels. At the close of navigation last fall, there was left in store about 40,000 bushels. The amount brought to market here since that time is, then, 228,500 bushels. And here is plenty more in the granaries of the country, held back for better prices.

Red Wing Argus, 25th.

A National Bank is about being established at St. Peter, with a capital of from fifty to seventy-five thousand dollars. So says the Tribune.

COUNTY AUDITORS OFFICE. March 7th 1865.
The board of County Commissioners met according to adjournment; all present. Board called to order by the chairman, Geo. M. Powers.

Resolved, that as the applications for the Volunteers Bounty have become so numerous, and the amount issued, so large, covering already, it is believed, the appropriation for that purpose, thus causing a great depreciation in the value of the orders, and inasmuch as it is evident that many are drawing from the Volunteers Bounty fund who are not actually in need of such aid.

Therefore it is hereby ordered that all issues of bounty be stopped from and after the 15th of March, A. D. 1865. Provided however that in case of special need new applications may still be made as heretofore, through the order of the County Commissioners, representing their respective districts.

On motion, the Board adjourned until the 1st Tuesday in June.

The Herald editorially thinks that Maximilian's quarrel with the church party will result in driving him from Mexico. It says: "His position is very precarious, as he has quarreled with the party that took him there, and may lead them to unite with the republicans." It says he has broken off with the French, so that his speedy overthrow is predicted.

A dispatch from Washington of the 23d says the issue of passes to civilians to visit the army of the Potomac was today suspended. Yesterday a large number of sutlers came up, and the remainder will follow as expeditiously as possible.

Deserters coming in on Wednesday say there was a perfect panic in Richmond, and that every able-bodied man and boy had been seized by Lee, who, it was rumored, had been appointed Dictator by the rebel Congress. All the papers were to be suppressed, and all business suspended.

Gen. Singleton, just from Richmond, ridicules the idea of a renewal of peace negotiations, and is certain neither Lee nor Davis has any intention of Submitting. Sheridan's men are being remounted, and will be soon in the saddle.

HOSTETTER'S.

CELEBRATED

Stomach Bitters.

A pure and powerful tonic, corrects and alleviates of wonderful efficacy in disease of the Stomach,

Liver and bowels, Cures Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Headache, General Debility,

Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers,

Cramps and Spasms and all Complaints of either Sex arising from biliousness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes. Nothing that is not wholesome genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forewarned against disease, and so far as the human system can be protected by human means against malice engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure air, and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infected with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge, and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less common forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves Constipation unaccompanied by irregular action of the digestive and secretory organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Langour, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of Billious Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by constantly resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated.

In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Deceptive influences from Old Age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-energize and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is

being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stimulants of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as "Hostetter's Bitters."

Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and storekeepers everywhere.

LAND WARRANTS and AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE SCRIP for sale at prices a small advance over New York rates. COLLEGE SCRIP sold $20 per 100 acres lower than Warrants, and can be used on all square 100 acre tracts of public lands, thus being a SAVING to the party making the entry.

The St. Paul Press.
DAILY TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY,
—IS—
THE ONLY UNION JOURNAL
Published at the Capital of the State, center upon the fifth volume with an established reputation as by far the BEST NEWSPAPER
Published west of Chicago. It is a sufficient proof of the unrivaled and rapidly increasing popularity of the Press that in the short space of four years it has attained nearly TRIPLE THE CIRCULATION.
Of any other Newspaper published in the State—a fact of GREAT IMPORTANCE to advertisers. This marvellous success is owing not only to the fact that its political sentiments are in harmony with those of the great majority of the people, but to its great superiority over all its rivals in every department of newspaper intelligence, being
ALWAYS AHEAD IN NEWS.
And foremost in the discussion of all subjects of public interest, and in advance of all measures for the material development of the State.
It has a far more extensive and intelligent War and State Correspondence than any Minnesota Journal, and better Local and Commercial Reports—and several excellent Poetical and Literary contributors. It is, in short,
The best General Newspaper,
The best State Newspaper,
The best Local Newspaper,
The best Political Journal,
The best Statistical Journal,
The best Emigration Journal,
The best Commercial Journal,
The best Literary Journal,
The best Family Journal,
Published in the State. And furthermore the Press is much THE LARGEST DAILY in Minnesota, and publishes daily about
One-third more Reading Matter than any other. It is the OFFICIAL PAPER
OF THE STATE & UNITED STATES,
and the only paper in the State which publishes the Laws of Congress and the Legislature.
THE TRI-WEEKLY PRESS.
contains nearly all the matter published in the Daily, and is a magnificent sheet, containing usually from twenty-four to thirty columns of reading matter.
The Weekly Press.
Is confessedly the Best Family Journal published in the State—containing all the news of the week, and the choicest Literary Selections, Tales, Poetry, Political Intelligence, Local News, Markets, &c.
The great advance in the cost of composition, paper, and all the materials employed in the manufacture of a Newspaper compelled a slight advance in our subscription price in August last; and though the cost of publication has greatly increased since then, we still adhere to the terms then announced, which will be found annexed.

THE DAILY PIONEER
Is issued EVERY MORNING IN THE WEEK (Sundays excepted.)
The Tri-weekly Pioneer
Is issued every MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY, and will be found a very convenient issue in localities which have no daily mail. It contains all the matter (exclusive of advertisements) that appears in the Daily edition.
The Weekly Pioneer
Is the first newspaper issued in Minnesota, and has been printed continuously since 1849. It contains all the news matter of the Daily and Tri-Weekly editions, and is the largest newspaper printed in the State. We shall endeavor, as in the past, to make it especially a FAMILY PAPER, and a welcome visitor to every household. It will contain, in addition to the news of the day, the best selected and original tales, poetry, reviews, and other excellent literary matter. It is in every respect a popular newspaper, and the cheapest as well as the best in the State.
The General Character of the Pioneer.
The several editions will present a full, faithful and reliable epitome of the latest current news, received through our regular telegraphic reports, correspondence, &c. Especial pains will be bestowed upon Commercial and Market Reports, up to the moment we go to press. To this will be added a lively interest in local matters, and in everything calculated to promote the material prosperity of our people. The general army news will be published promptly, faithfully and fully, and especial attention will be directed to intelligence relating to Minnesota troops of the day, giving the latest, most authentic and detailed information as to their locality and the conduct of officers and soldiers.

Political Affairs.
while THE PIONEER will refrain from intemperate and fictitious opposition to the present Administration, it will fearlessly criticize every act that is deemed subversive of the public good; but it will be the spirit of candor and moderation designed to evolve light and truth, and promote the diffusion of sound principles of political economy. We shall advocate at all times "Democratic Principles and Democratic Men," and expose the evil tendencies and corruptions of radical measures and men. In short, we shall aim to make THE PIONEER the central organ of the Democratic and conservative sentiment of Minnesota, and being determined to continue in the course we have pursued the past year, we confidently appeal to the Democracy for their support.
In these days when the party in power is lavish of its benefits to its press, which has become base as it has grown venal, and when the Democratic press is excluded from patronage, it is especially important that the masses of the party should extend a liberal support to its papers. It is indispensable, and it is the business of every patriotic and conservative man of the State. With these views, we regard it a duty to enjoin upon Democrats everywhere to support the local and central press. It must be done, or we must abandon the hope to take our place in the grand roll of Democratic States, which the events of the next two years will inevitably inscribe upon the time-honored banner. Let not Minnesota be lagged to "pursue the triumph and partake the gain."
BOOK & JOB PRINTING.
Labor, paper and everything which enters into the cost of a newspaper, is so high that we can hope for little profit in that branch of our business, and we therefore particularly solicit.
JOB WORK

Cards, Circulars, Checks, Drafts, Notes, Bill Heads, Bills of Lading, Blankets, Posters, Hand and Shop Bills, Books, Pamphlets, Law Cases, Masonic and Odd Fellows Work.

PROSPECTUS
CHICAGO EVENING JOURNAL
FOR 1865.
Daily, Tri-Weekly & Weekly.
The most eventful year in our National history is closing, and a new era, perhaps even more eventful, is about opening.
The people of the Northwest, as everywhere, will therefore look to the public newspaper with unusual solicitude for the clear and truthful record of those signal events which all men believe will transpire.
In making our annual announcement to the patrons of THE JOURNAL, we beg leave first to congratulate them on the triumph of Congress at the cause of the Union in the great Northwest, and the vindication of the Administration of Abraham Lincoln by such unprecedented majorities of the people. As THE JOURNAL in the past has zealously supported that Administration and all its measures for the suppression of the rebellion, so shall it maintain that faith until the flag of our country waves over it all, the emblem of universal Liberty.
To maintain the Union, to preserve the Republic, to do away with Slavery by any and every means under the Constitution, and cordially to support every man, whether in civil or military commission, who is also laboring in that behalf, is now, and shall ever be, the sacred purpose of THE JOURNAL.
THE CHICAGO JOURNAL
IS NOW EQUAL TO THE BEST NEWS-PAPERS IN THE EAST OR WEST, in the amount of its news and other reading matter. It aims to always give
The Latest News,
By Telegraph or Otherwise, in Advance of all its Western Contemporaries, an object it has attained, in almost every important event of the war. To do this has involved great effort and expense, but has been more than rewarded by a great increase of patrons.
To increase our facilities,
A New Four Cylinder Power Press.
of more than double the capacity of its predecessor, has been added to our office the past year.
Additions have been made to the corps of Editors, Reporters and Correspondents, and the coming winter it will furnish reliable and early reports from all the capitals of the Northwestern States, as well as from the National Capital.
Our Daily and Weekly
Market Reports are prepared with a view to accuracy and reliability, and are sufficiently comprehensive to meet the wants of buyers and sellers in all departments of trade.
In short, our endeavors, in every department of THE JOURNAL, are directed to the one great object of giving the Western people
A Sound, Comprehensive and Reliable Newspaper.
While gratefully acknowledging the liberal evidences we have received during the year now closing of the appreciation of the Western reading public, we hazard nothing in promising that our future efforts will be even more worthy of their support.
TERMS—Payable in Advance.
Notwithstanding the great increase in the price of white paper, the subscription to THE JOURNAL will not be increased, but will be furnished at the old rates per year, as follows:
Weekly, single subscribers (6 mo.) $1.25 & 2.50
To clubs of 4 copies, per year.....5.00
To clubs of 10 copies.....20.00
To clubs of 20 copies.....40.00
Tri-weekly, single subscribers.....12.00

GOLD-BEARING BONDS
These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov. which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three percent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.
The interest amounts to One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " $100 "

20 " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " $5000 "

GREAT POPULAR LOAN OF THE PEOPLE.
Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.
In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers, throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

and Specific remedy for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.
This Medicine increases the power of Digestion and excites the Absorbents into healthy action, by which the Watery or Catarrhous depu-sitions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as Pain and Inflammation.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

For Weaknesses arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indulgence of Abuse, attended with the following symptoms:-
Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horrors of Disease, Wake-fulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,
Hot hands, Flushing of the body, Dryness of Skin, Eruptions on the Face, Pallid Countenance.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which
this medicine invariably removes, soon follows
Impotency, Fatality, Epileptic Fits,
In one of which the Patient may expire.
Who can say that they are not frequently followed by these "terrible Diseases."

"Insanity and Consumption"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering,
but none will confess to the same.
And melancholy deaths by consumption
bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion. The Constitution, once debilitated with Organic Weakness requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which Helmhold's Extract Buchu invariably does.
A Trial will convince the most skeptical.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

In many affections peculiar to females the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy,
as in Catarrhs or Retention of Urine, Wake-fulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations Ulcerated or Scirrhous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhoea or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from

Secret Diseases

In all their stages. At little expense.
Little or no change in diet. No inconvenience,
and no exposure.

to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing stricture of the urethra, alleviating pain and inflammation, so frequent in the class of diseases and expelling all "poisonous discharges and worn-out matter."

Thousands upon thousands who have been the victims of Quacks and who have paid "heavy fees" to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has
by the use of "powerful astringents" been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form and perhaps after Marriage.

tions and diseases of the Urinary Organs whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating and no matter how LOW STAMEN.

Diseases of these Organs requires the aid of a

Poetry.

BETTER THAN GOLD.

Better than grandeur, better than gold,
Than rank and titles a thousand fold,
Is a healthy body, a mind at ease,
And simple pleasures that always please;
A heart that can feel for a neighbor's woe,
And share his joys with a genial glow,
With sympathies large enough to enfold,
All men as brothers, is better than gold.

Better than gold is a conscience clear,
Where all the fabled chimeras come;
Though telling for bread in a humble sphere,
Doubly blest with content and health,
Untried by the lust or cares of wealth;
Lowly living and lofty thought,
Adorn and ennoble a poor man's cot,
For mind and morals, or Nature's plan,
Are the genuine test of a gentleman.

Better than gold is the sweet repose
Of the sons of toil when their labors close;
Better than gold is the poor man's sleep;
And the balm that drops on his slumbers deep;
Bring sleeping draughts to the downy bed
Where luxury pillows his aching head;
His simpler quietude labor deems
A shorter road to the land of dreams.

Better than gold is a peaceful home,
Where all the fabled chimeras come;
The shrine of love and the heaven of life,
Hallowed by mother, or sister, or wife,
However humble the home may be,
Or tried with sorrow by heaven's decree,
The blessings that never were bought or sold,
And centre there, are better than gold.

THE WORLD ON FIRE.

The day had been fine, with a moderate wind from the northwest. When the sun went down behind the ridge of mountains limiting the bay, a perfect calm followed, with a sky absolutely cloudless. At four P.M. there had been seen one solitary and peculiar cloud hanging in the heavens to the north about fifteen degrees above the horizon. This at last disappeared, and the night set in still beautiful and mild, with myriads of stars shining with apparently greater brilliance than ever.

I had gone on deck several times to look at the beautiful scene, and at nine o'clock was below in my cabin going to bed, when the captain hailed me with the words, "Come above, Hall, at once!
THE WORLD IS ON FIRE!"

I knew his meaning, and as quick as thought, redressed myself, scrambled over several sleeping inmates close to my berth, and rushed to the companion stairs. In another moment I reached the deck, and as the cabin door swung open, a dazzling overpowering light, as if the world was really ablaze under the agency of some gorgeously colored fires, burst upon my startled senses! How can I describe it? Again I say, no mortal hand can truthfully do so, let me, however, in feeble, broken words, put down my thoughts at the time, and try to give some faint idea of what I saw.

My first thought was, "Among the Gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord! neither are there any works like unto thy works!" Then I tried to picture the scene before me. Piles of golden light and rainbow light, scattered along the azure fault, extended from behind the western horizon to the zenith; thence down to the eastern, within a belt of space twenty degrees in width, were the fountains of beams, like fire-threads,
that shot with the rapidity of lightning
hither and thither, upward and athwart
the great pathway indicated. No sun, no moon, yet the heavens were a glorious sight, flooded with light. Even ordinary print could have been easily read on deck.

Flooded with rivers of light. Yes,
flooded with light; and such light! - Light all but inconceivable. The golden hues predominated; but, in rapid succession, prismatic colors torped forth.

We looked, we saw, and trembled;
for, even as we gazed, the whole belt of aurora began to alive with flashes. - Then each pile or bank of light became myriads; some now dropping down the great pathway or belt, others springing up, others leaping with lightning flash

from one side, while more as quickly passed into vacated space; some twisting themselves into folds, entwining with others like enormous serpents, and all these movements as quick as the eye could follow. It seemed as if there was a struggle with these heavenly lights to reach and occupy the dome above our heads. Then the whole arch above became crowded. Down, down it came;
nearer and nearer it approached us. - Sheets of golden flame, coruscating while leaping from the auroral belt, seemed as if met in their course by some mighty agency that turned them into the colors of the rainbow, each of the seven primary, three degrees in width, sheeting out twenty-one degrees - the prismatic bows at right angles with the belt.

While the auroral fires seemed to be descending upon us, one of our number could not help exclaiming, "Hark! hark!
such a display! almost as if a warfare
was going on among the beauteous lights
above - so palpable - so near - seems impossible without noise."

But no noise accompanied this wondrous display. All was silence.

After we had again descended into our cabin, so strong was the impression of awe left upon us that the captain said to me, "Well, during the last eleven years I have spent mostly in these northern regions I never have seen anything of the aurora to approach the glorious vivid display just witnessed. And to tell you the truth, friend Hall, I do not care to see the like ever again!"

SCENES AT THE CAPTURE OF COLUMBIA, S. C.

The correspondent of the New York Tribune, with Sherman's army, in his account of the grand march through South Carolina, thus describes the occupation of the capital city of that State.
On our entrance into the city the women rushed frantically into the streets with bottles of whiskey, and basins of whiskey, and cups of whiskey, and whiskey in every sort of vessel. The soldiers naturally were not averse to a little whiskey. When it was pressed upon them in this manner, and the columns marching through the streets were beset on every side, it need be no matter of wonder if some excitement followed. South Carolina whiskey moreover is a shade
worse even than Commissary whiskey.
The Mayor of the city was anxious to have the whiskey destroyed, but the Governor of South Carolina said, "No, let the damned Yankees drink it and get drunk!"
To some extent they undoubtedly did.

It was discovered on advancing through the city that Wade Hampton had had large quantities of cotton piled in the street. The bales had been cut open,
the cotton pulled out loosely, and remained all ready for the torch. In several places it was actually on fire. A high wind was blowing at the time, which had scattered the cotton through the streets, and on the house-tops and piazzas and verandahs the effect being, in many places, as if a snow storm had fallen on the city. The fire had been set to this cotton, the citizens said, by Wheeler's men, who were the last to leave the town.
The wind abating, the efforts which our men made to extinguish the fire were apparently successful. Towards evening
a strong southwesterly gale came up,
which fanned the smouldering embers and the half-extinguished cotton into a blaze, and wafted the newly burning tufts of the cotton on to the roofs and into the open windows and doors of the houses through a large part of the city. At the same time a man who had his store filled with provisions which belonged to the rebel Government, and to which our soldiers were helping themselves, himself set his store on fire. From the burning cotton which had blown from the bales, the city was soon on fire in as many as twenty places, the soldiers endeavoring everywhere to arrest the flames, the citizens either sullenly looking on or rushing wildly about, and in either case making no effort to stop the fire. Our escaped prisoners were to be seen rushing to the houses of those who had befriended them,

and calling on the soldiers for help, and they worked long and earnestly to save the property of those who had been kind to their comrades. Before morning, however, nearly the whole city was in ashes. Nearly 3,000 houses had been destroyed. The Old Capitol was burnt, the new one somewhat damaged. The Bank Note and Treasury Buildings, where the rebel notes were engraved and printed, were entirely burnt. The Sisters of Mercy Home was burnt, and all the hotels. Only one church was destroyed.

Many of the soldiers were now intoxicated, barrels of liquor were distributed,
many women were drunk, and the city
appeared a perfect pandemonium.

The day following, the arsenal and public buildings were destroyed. We found 43 heavy guns, 5,000 stand of small arms, 12,000 rounds of fixed ammunition, large quantities of heavy ammunition, and a great portion of the machinery that had been sent here from Charleston for safety at the time of the evacuation of that place. The machine shops, which were of vast importance, ordnance stores of all kinds, one complete battery of Blakely guns with caissons and limber chests,
were destroyed and thrown into the river,
which, as far as one could see, seemed black with the powder. This was all destroyed by Lieutenant Colonel Baylor, Chief Ordnance officer, who had a detail
from the 2d division of the 15th Corps,
General Clark's brigade, for this purpose.

By the careless handling of the powder,
a terrific explosion occurred, killing and wounding quite a number of our men.
A few days before Sherman's arrival in front of Columbia our officers, who were prisoners at that place, were aware that they were to be removed. They immediately commenced tunneling, searching for a place in which to hide until our army could reach them. All the prisoners were removed. The rebels stationed a small force around the outside of the stockade to watch for any of the prisoners who should come out, and to recapture them. A few were taken in this manner, and the suspicious of the guard were aroused. They came into the prison, searched for the tunnel, and discovered one place which looked suspicious. Immediately they set fire to the shanty over it, and then stood around with their guns ready to shoot any of our prisoners who might come out of the hole. A number were killed in this way, and others were burned to death in the tunnels.

About 130 of our officers escaped and joined the army on its march. Many of those who were conveyed toward Charlotte by the cars, escaped by jumping from the train while in motion, and joined us. They all speak with the utmost feeling of the kindness of the negroes,
and say that there are very many Union
people down there.

—A dream fitted past the cavern where Fortune was sleeping, and awoke her from her slumber.

"Whence comest thou?" asked the Goddess.

"From a maiden," said the aerial visitor, "over whose pillow I have hovered
all night. I wore the shape of a lover, of rank and wealth, with horses and equi-
pages, and a train of liveried servants.
I knelt and kissed her hand and had just won her consent to be mine, when day broke, and I vanished. But the child will think of me all the day long,
and be happy."

"My fate is not so happy a one as thine," replied Fortune. "Twas but lately I visited a merchant, and made him prosperous and happy. While I remained with him he was contented; but yesterday I turned away my face from him and he hung himself. Why should those whom thou visitest feel thy disappearance less? Am not I, too, a dream?"

—A touch of real calamity cures the imaginary sorrows of those who make mountains of molehills.

—It was a maxim of General Jackson's,
"Take time to deliberate; but when the hour for action arrives, stop thinking and go in."

Saturday April 8th 1865.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK.

The long promised, long hoped for day has come at last, and the Rebel Capital is ours. In 1862, we were sure we had it; in 63, we thought we had it; in 64, we hoped we had it; but the great consummation has remained for April 3d 1865 just four years, lacking a day, from the time the first gun of treason was fired up on the heroic little garrison of Fort Sumpter.

Last Friday Gen. Sheridan with his cavalry force supported by the Fifth corps, attacked the enemy upon our extreme left below Petersburg, on Hatcher's Run, with a view to break through their strong defences guarding the South Side Railroad, thus to cut off their communications. After very severe fighting, Gen. Sheridan on Saturday forced through their works and captured about 5,000 prisoners. Gen. Grant immediately advanced his whole line on receipt of this intelligence, and after severe fighting during the day Sunday, the enemy's works being taken one after another, together with about 12,000 prisoners and many cannon, in the evening completely surrounded Petersburg on the south side of the Appomattox touching that stream above and below the city. Sunday night the enemy retreated, and at last accounts Grant's army were in full pursuit.

Early Monday morning it was discovered that Richmond was evacuated and Gen. Weitzel marched in and occupied the city with his negro troops.

Nothing is yet heard of Sherman's late movements but he is doubtless on the alert for Johnston who confronts him, and with Sheridan and Grant driving down from the east; Hancock to the north in the Shenandoah Valley; Stoneman to the west in East Tennessee, great and decisive battles cannot be long delayed.

The 7-30's

PHILADELPHIA, March 29.

Jay Cooke reports the subscriptions to the 7-30 loan on Saturday at $2,197,300. The largest Western subscription, was $64,500 from Chicago, and the largest Eastern one $59,000, from Springfield, Mass. There were 1,477 individual subscriptions of $50 and $100 each. The total subscriptions for the week amount to $16,795,800.

NEWS ITEMS.

A gentleman high in official confidence, and direct from Washington, asserted a few days ago that President Lincoln has declared that there will be no more calls for troops and no more drafts. Mr. Lincoln expresses the opinion that, by the 4th of July next the war will be at an end.

Four years ago, in February, 1861 Jefferson Davis said in Stevenson, Ala.: "Your border States will gladly come into the Southern Confederacy within sixty days, as we will be your only friends. England will recognize us, and a glorious future is before us. The grass will grow in the Northern cities, where the pavements have been worn by the tread of commerce. We will carry war where it is easy to advance, where food for the sword and torch await the armies in the densely populated cities."

The slaves around Laurensburg, at the opening of our campaign through Carolina, had organized a party with the intention of forcing their way to our lines. The plot was discovered, and at one of their meetings they were surrounded by parties of the house guards, captured, and after a kind of mock trial, twenty-five were hung.

When the rebels retreated from Wilmington, they deliberately set fire to a house filled with wounded Union prisoners. Eight or ten of them, being unable to leave, were burned to death.

California promises $750,000 of gold a month, for the next nine months.

Baltimore, April 3.

The Union people here are intoxicated with joy, and immensely jubilant. They embrace one another in the streets. There is a great display of flags. The Mayor ordered all the bells in the city to be rung.

RICHMOND CAPTURED!

GEN. WEITZEL OCCUPIES THE CITY, WITH NEGRO TROOPS.

GRANT'S ARMY IN PURSUIT OF LEE.

CITY POINT, April 2, 8:30 P. M.

Hon. E. M. Stanton:

At 4:30 P. M., to-day Gen. Grant telegraphed as follows:

We are up and have continuous line of troops, and in a few hours will be entrenched from the Appomattox below Petersburg to the river above.

The whole captures since the army started out will not amount to less than 12,000 men, and probably 50 pieces of artillery. I do not know the number of men and guns accurately, however. A portion of Foster's division, 24th corps, made a most gallant charge this afternoon, and captured a very important fort from the enemy, with its entire garrison. All seems well with us. Everything quiet just now.

A. LINCOLN.

WASHINGTON, April 3—10 A. M.

Major Gen. Dix:

It appears from a dispatch of General Weitzel, just received by this Department, that our forces under his command are in Richmond, having taken it at eight o'clock this forenoon.

(Signed) E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

BUFFALO, March 3,—2 P. M.—Dispatches from Washington show great excitement and rejoicing over the fall of Petersburg and Richmond. A dispatch from President Lincoln to the War Department 8:30 this morning reports that Petersburg is evacuated.

WASHINGTON, April 3,—Noon.

To Maj. Gen. Dix, New York:

The following official confirmation of the capture of Richmond and the announcement that the city is on fire has been received:

(Signed) E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

CITY POINT, April 3—11 A. M.

Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

Gen. Weitzel telegraphs as follows:

"We took Richmond at 8:15 this morning. I captured many guns. The enemy left in great haste. The city is on fire in one place. I am making every effort to put it out. The people receive us with enthusiastic demonstrations of joy."

Gen. Grant started early this morning with the army toward the Danville Road, to cut off Lee's retreating army if possible.

President Lincoln has gone to the front.

T. S. BOWERS, Acting Adjutant General.

THE GOOD NEWS

How the Fall of Richmond is Regarded in Washington.

New York, April 3d

The Herald's special says it is believed in Washington that the war is over, and that an understanding to that effect exists.

The programme of Gen. Grant anticipates all possible movements of the enemy. He did not merely provide for the evacuation of Richmond and Petersburg. He anticipated this contingency, and Lee will find his retreat cut off at all points.

Thomas, Sheridan and Hancock are closing around the nucleus of the rebel army. The military organizations of the confederacy will cease to exist during the present week.

Sherman has yet to be heard from. He is not inactive during the great operations now pending. Peace through war is the object of the administration, and it seems to be now within reach.

New York, April 3—7 P. M.

As the day advances, the excitement over Grant's victory increases. Salutes are being fired from a dozen or more different points.

Philadelphia, April 3.

Independence Hall bell was rung by order of the Mayor. The firemen turned out under the impression of an alarm of fire, and then formed a procession and passed through the streets, firing a salute and blowing steam whistles. Their procession was an hour passing a point. The Board of Brokers adjourned with cheers. Business is at a stand still.

THE DAILY PIONEER

Is issued EVERY MORNING IN THE WEEK (Mondays excepted.)

The Tri-weekly Pioneer

Is issued every MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY, and will be found a very convenient issue in localities which have no daily mail. It contains all the matter (exclusive of advertisement) that appears in the Daily edition.

The Weekly Pioneer

Is the first newspaper issued in Minnesota, and has been printed continuously since 1849. It contains all the news matter of the Daily and Tri-Weekly editions, and is the largest newspaper printed in the State. We shall endeavor, as in the past, to make it especially a FAMILY PAPER, and a welcome visitor to every household. It will contain, in addition to the news of the day, the best selected and original tales, poetry, reviews, and other excellent literary matter. It is in every respect a popular newspaper, and the cheapest as well as the best in the State.

The General Character of the Pioneer.

The several editions will present a full, faithful and reliable epitome of the latest current news, received through our regular telegraphic reports, correspondence, &c. Especial pains will be bestowed upon Commercial and Market Reports, up to the moment we go to press. To this will be added a lively interest in local matters, and in everything calculated to promote the material prosperity of our people. The general news will be published promptly, faithfully and fully, and especial attention will be directed to intelligence relating to Minnesota troops in the field giving the latest, most authentic and detailed information as to their location and the conduct of officers and soldiers.

Political Affairs.

While the Pioneer will refrain from intemperate and factious opposition to the present Administration, it will fearlessly criticize every act that is deemed subversive of the public good; but it will be in a spirit of candor and moderation designed to evolve light and truth, and promote the diffusion of sound, and the principles of political economy. We shall advocate at all times "Democratic Principles and Democratic men," and expose the evil tendency and corruptions of radical measures and men. In short, we shall aim to make the Pioneer the central organ of the Democratic and conservative sentiment of Minnesota; and being determined to continue in the course we have pursued the past year, we are confidently appealing to the Democracy for their support.

In these days when the party in power is lavish of its benefits to its press, which has become base as its grown vernal, and when the Democratic press is excluded from patronage, it is especially important that the masses of the party should extend a liberal support to its papers. It is indispensable, and it is the business of every patriotic and conservative man of the State. With these views, we regard it a duty to enjoin upon Democrats everywhere to support the local and central press. It must be done, or we must abandon the hope to take our place in the grand roll of Democratic States, which the events of the next two years will inevitably inscribe upon the time-honored banner. Let not Minnesota be laggard to "pursue the triumph and partake the gain."

BOOK & JOB PRINTING.

Labor, paper and everything which enters into the cost of a newspaper, is so high that we can hope for little profit in that branch of our business, and we therefore particularly solicit.

PROSPECTUS

CHICAGO EVENING JOURNAL
FOR 1865.
Daily, Tri Weekly & Weekly.

The most eventful year in our National history is closing, and a new era, perhaps even more eventful, is about opening. The people of the Northwest, as everywhere, will therefore look to the public newspaper with unusual solicitude for the clear and truthful record of those signal events which all men believe will transpire.

In making our annual announcement to the patrons of THE JOURNAL, we beg leave first to congratulate them on the triumphant success of the cause of the Union in the great Northwest, and throughout the loyal Nation, and the vindication of the Administration of Abraham Lincoln by such unprecedented majorities of the people. As THE JOURNAL in the past has zealously supported that Administration and all its measures for the suppression of the rebellion, so shall it maintain that faith until the flag of our country waves over it all, the emblem of universal Liberty. To maintain the Union, to preserve the Republic, to do away with Slavery by any and every means under the Constitution, and cordially to support every man, whether in civil or military commission, who is also laboring in that behalf, is now, and shall ever be, the sacred purpose of THE JOURNAL.

THE CHICAGO JOURNAL is now EQUAL TO THE BEST NEWS-PAPERS IN THE EAST OR WEST, in the amount of its news and other reading matter. It aims to always give

The Latest News.

By Telegraph or Otherwise, in Advance of all its Western Contemporaries, an object it has attained, in almost every important event of the war. To do this has involved great effort and expense, but has been more than rewarded by a great increase of patrons.

A New Four Cylinder Power Press.

Of more than double the capacity of its predecessor, has been added to our office the past year. Additions have been made to the corps of Editors, Reporters and Correspondents, and the coming winter it will furnish reliable and early reports from all the capitals of the Northwestern States, as well as from the National Capital.

Our Daily and Weekly

Market Reports are prepared with a view to accuracy and reliability, and are sufficiently comprehensive to meet the wants of buyers and sellers in all departments of trade.

In short, our endeavors, in every department of THE JOURNAL, are directed to the one great object of giving the Western people.

A Sound, Comprehensive and Reliable Newspaper.

While gratefully acknowledging the liberal evidences we have received during the year now closing of the appreciation of the Western reading public, we hazard nothing in promising that our future efforts will be even more worthy of their support.

TERMS—Payable in Advance.

Notwithstanding the great increase in the price of white paper, the subscription to THE JOURNAL will not be increased, but will be furnished at the old rates per year, as follows:

Weekly, single subscribers (6 mo.), $1.25 & 2.50
To clubs of 4 copies, per year.....9.00
To clubs of 10 copies.....40.00
To clubs of 20 copies.....80.00
Tri-weekly, single subscribers.....7.00

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE Preparations.

COMPOUND Fluid Extract Bence, a Positive and Specific remedy for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Rheumatic Swellings. This Medicine increases the power of Digestion and excites the Absorbents to healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcareous deposits, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as Pain and Irritation.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.
For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion of Abuse, attended with the following symptoms:—
Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Hot hands, Flashing of the body, Driviness of Skin, Eruptions on the Face, Pallid Countenance, These symptoms? If allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits, In one of which the Patient may expire. Who can say that they are not frequently followed by these? I repeat them.

"Incurability and Consumption"
Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess the records of the insidious system. And melancholy deaths by consumption, and the loss of the system, the system of Weakness requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which Helmhold's Extract Buchu invariably does. A Trial will convince the most skeptical.

FEMALES—FEMALES—FEMALES.
In many affections peculiar to females the Extract Bence is unequalled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of Menstrual Evacuations, Ulcerated or Scirrhous State of the Uterus, Leucorrhoea or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from indiscretion, habits of dissipation, or in the Decline or Change in Life.

Take no more Balsam, Mercury or unpleasant medicines for unpleasant and dangerous diseases. Helmhold's Extract Buchu and Improved Rose Wash Cures.

Secret Diseases.
In all their stages. At little expense. Little or no change in diet. No inconvenience, and no exposure.
It causes a frequent desire and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in the disease and expelling all "poisonous" humors. Thousands upon thousands who have been the victims of Quacks, and who have paid "heavy prices" to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has by the use of powerful instruments, been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form and perhaps after marriage.

Use Helmhold's Extract Bence for all affections and diseases of the Urinary Organs whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating and no matter how long standing.
Diseases of these Organs requires the aid of a Specific. Helmhold's Extract Bence is the great Remedy, and is certain to have the desired effect in all Diseases for which it is Recommended. Evidence of the most reliable and responsible character will accompany the medicine.

Price $1.00 per bottle, or six for $5.00, delivered to any Address, securely packed from observation. Describe symptoms in all communications.

DAILY TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY.

THE ONLY UNION JOURNAL

Published at the Capital of the State, entered upon the fifth volume with an established reputation as by far the

TREBLE THE CIRCULATION.

Of any other Newspaper published in the State—a fact of GREAT IMPORTANCE TO ADVERTISERS. This marvellous success is owing not only to the fact that its political sentiments are in harmony with those of the great majority of the people, but to its great superiority over all its rivals in every department of newspaper intelligence, being

ALWAYS AHEAD IN NEWS.

And foremost in the discussion of all subjects of public interest, and in advocacy of all measures for the material development of the State.

It has a far more extensive and intelligent War and State Correspondence than any Minnesota Journal, a better Local and Commercial Reporter—and several excellent Poetical and Literary contributors. It is, in short,

The best General Newspaper,
The best State Newspaper,
The best Local Newspaper,

The Weekly Press.

The great advantage in the cost of composition, paper, and all the materials employed in the manufacture of a Newspaper, compelled a slight advance in our subscription price in August last; and though the cost of publication has greatly increased since then, we still adhere to the terms then announced, which will be found annexed

Poetry.

A Dirge.

Drop we in our graves,
Gently, silently,
As snow flakes in the waves
Of the solemn sea.

Uprose the winter-land
From out the heaving main;
Uprose the storm wind loud;
Gleam in the sea again.

Silently, solemnly,
Yield back her dust to the soil;
Snow-flakes melt in the solemn sea,
Souls return to God.

One Note Wrong.

Blue bends the sky above—
Blue runs the stream below—
Earth quiet as a dove;
Would that my heart were so!

No leaf nor shadow falls,
On all the green hill-side;
Even to the cuckoo's calls
Echo but half replied.

So lazy goes the hour,
The very dragonfly,
Perched on the dozing flower,
Moves neither wing nor eye.

Bird, blossom, branch and stream,
All quiet as the air;
And lying, as in a dream,
Earth seemeth passing fair.

Oh, what a hymn divine
Batches from this golden noon;
Only this hour of mine
Is beating out of tune!

Miscellaneous.

THE PEARL OYSTER.

Far down in the deep waters, near the island of Ceylon in the bright sand, lay a young pearl oyster. It was surrounded by a large family of brothers and sisters, and was as happy and joyous as an oyster could be. The beams of light came dancing down upon him from the upper world, just as bright as his eyes could bear. The dark waves rolled over his head and beat upon the island with a thundering roar, but they never troubled him. Ships some times scudded across his vision under their storm-sails, but whether wrecked or safe, gave him little or no anxiety. In the hungry fish came prowling round, he nestled deeper in the sand, and was safe. So full of life was he that, had he feet, he doubtless would have danced for joy. So he lived and grew, the very pride of his family.

But one day he suddenly felt a sharp pain dart through him.

"O, what is that?" cried he. "I never felt anything like it! Has some young sword-fish stuck his sharp sword into me?"

"Alas! my child," said his mother, "I know well what it means. You have an incurable disease growing upon you. O, that the angel of the waters would pity you and spare you!"

"Shall I feel it again, mother?"

"Yes, again and again. But you will learn to bear it, and the trouble will come upon you so gradually that you will learn to suffer."

From that day the poor oyster never had an hour free from pain. Gradually these pains came, but with increasing power; but he soon learned to bear them, and even to smile and speak cheerfully. Tenderly the poor mother ministered to him and comforted him. But it was soon found that there was something growing round his heart, that was very hard. It seemed like a small, round stone at first, but it was covered up so that nobody could see it. All the doctors for miles round came and prescribed, and guessed what it was, but could afford no relief. It was noticed, too, that the angel of the waters came often and looked upon the poor sufferer, and every time he did so the pains increased. It seemed as if he wanted to increase them—as no doubt he did. Sometimes he would touch him with his finger, sometimes turn him over, and sometimes hint to the physician to give the very medicine that made the sufferings greater! Poor, helpless one! there he lay, year after year, growing larger, and the lump near his heart growing larger and harder, and the pains ever increasing.

At last the poor oyster was worn out by pains and died; and as he breathed his last a pearl diver came down and seized him and put him into his little bag.—Soon he shot up again to the world above the waters, and entered the boat that was waiting for him. And now they opened the shell, and, lo! all was explained. Within the shell was a magnificent pearl—bright as a silver rainbow. It was the largest ever found in those waters. Carefully they carried it away. And now it was known that it cost all those sufferings and agonies to make that pearl. The angel of the waters had made them all to go into that pearl, and not an agony could have been less and have the jewel so perfect. It was carried at once to the crown jeweller, and now adorns the head of the Queen. No other pearl can compare with it.

O, the wisdom, goodness and mercy of God! He can take the pains and the agonies of the sick one and work them all into jewels which will sparkle in the crown of Christ forever! All our sorrows and sufferings, and our very tears, will thus become a part of His own glorious crown.

We wonder often that the good, the meek, are made to suffer so long and so fearfully; but when we look upon the jewels which He thus made up we shall cease to wonder. Not one pang or sorrow could be spared and have the jewels in His crown what they are.

O, sufferer on the bed of pain! I have told thee the simple story of the way our Lord makes pearls for the crown of earthly monarchs; and in the same way He is fitting thee to be a glory in His own diadem. Patiently, patiently suffer His will, and then will hereafter see that it was all to make thee more glorious in the eternal kingdom.—Rev. Dr. Todd.

A DINNER OF EIGHTEEN HUNDRED YEARS AGO.—The citizens of ancient Pompeii knew what was good. They relished roast pig. A family in that aristocratic city, one of the F. P. P.'s, perhaps, were about to dine on the rich and succulent dish on the very day that the restless Titan, under Mount Vesuvius, expected from his fiery lungs the shower of red-hot ashes which entombed the Pompeians in their dwellings. The pig was being cooked, and was probably near done, at the time when the volcanic storm burst in and spoiled it. This is not a matter of conjecture, reader, for only a few weeks ago a mass of indurated lava and ashes was found in a stew-pan, standing on a cooking stove in the kitchen of a house recently disinterred, and on opening the lump a perfect mold of a sucking-porker was disclosed. A cast was taken of the hollow, and the result was a facsimile of the little animal, which had been roasted in scientific style, and is supposed, from the shape of the matrix, to have been just ready for the table. The inquisitive antiquarians are continually poking their noses into little domestic secrets of the Pompeians of eighteen centuries ago, which the people of the excavated neighborhood would have hesitated to tell one another.

WIT AND WISDOM.

—Aliment is easily changed to ailment.

—Wit is wisdom at play, while humor is only good nature in a frolic.

—Nobody but a fool gets bit twice by the same dog.

—Always give a narrow-minded man a very wide berth.

—Poor consolation for us survivors—that "the good die first."

—The less a writer knows of a subject the more ink he uses in telling it.

—Digging trenches is said to be the ground work of a military education.

—A breach which every gallant soldier avoids—a breach of politeness.

—When we have elaborately armed against temptation it is disappointment not to be led into it.

—A melting sermon being preached in a country church, all fell a-weeping but one man, who being asked why he did not weep with the rest, said, "Oh! I belong to another parish."

—An old bachelor being asked by a pert young miss if he could account for the application of the term belle to handsome young ladies, promptly replied that it was owing to the goodly proportion of brass in their composition.

PROSPECTUS

CHICAGO IRVING JOURNAL
FOR 1895.
Daily, Tri Weekly & Weekly.

The most successful year in our National history is closing, and a new era, perhaps even more successful, is about opening. The people of the Northwest, as every where, will therefore look to the public newspaper with unusual solicitude for the clear and truthful record of those signal events which all men believe will transpire.

In making our annual announcement to the patrons of THE JOURNAL, we beg leave first to congratulate them on the triumph of the great Northwest, and throughout the loyal Nation, and the vindication of the Administration of Abraham Lincoln by such unprecedented majorities of the people. As THE JOURNAL in the past has zealously supported that Administration and all its measures for the suppression of the rebellion, so shall it maintain that faith until the flag of our country waves over it all, the emblem of universal Liberty. To maintain the Union, to preserve the Republic, to do away with Slavery by any and every means under the Constitution, and cordially to support every man, whether in civil or military commission, who is also laboring for that result, is now and shall ever be, the sacred purpose of THE JOURNAL.

THE CHICAGO JOURNAL

IS NOW EQUAL TO THE BEST NEWS-PAPERS IN THE EAST OR WEST. In the amount of its news and other reading matter. It aims to always give

The Latest News, By Telegraph or otherwise, in Advance of all its Western Contemporaries, an object it has attained, in almost every important event of the war. To do this has involved great effort and expense, but has been more than rewarded by a great increase of patrons.

To increase our facilities,

A New Four Cylinder Power Press.

of more than double the capacity of its predecessor, has been added to our office this year.

Additional hands have been made to the corps of Editors, Reporters and Correspondents, and the coming winter it will furnish reliable and early reports from all the capitals of the Northwestern States, as well as from the National Capital.

Our Daily and Weekly

Market Reports are prepared with a view to accuracy and reliability, and are sufficiently comprehensive to meet the wants of buyers and sellers in all departments of trade.

In short, our endeavors, in every department of THE JOURNAL, are directed to the one great object of giving the Western people.

A Sound, Comprehensive and Reliable Newspaper.

While gratefully acknowledging the liberal evidences we have received during the year now closing of the appreciation of the Western reading public, we hazard nothing in promising that our future efforts will be even more worthy of their support.

TERMS—Payable in Advance.

Notwithstanding the great increase in the price of white paper, the subscription to THE JOURNAL will not be increased, but will be furnished at the old rates per year, as follows:

Weekly, single copies (5¢ each), $2.50
To clubs of 4 copies, per year, 9.00
To clubs of 10 copies, per year, 22.00

THE HISTORY

OF HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and other ailments arising from a disordered stomach or liver, place it at once among the most valuable medicines that have been placed in the medical world. The disease to which Bitters are applicable arises from the fact that there are but few of our friends who may not feel that there is in their own families or circle of acquaintance, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy in the many ailments of medicine, deserving the public commendation.

For sale by Druggists and dealers, everywhere.

Manhood: how Lost, how Restored!

Just published, a new edition of
DR. GUINERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY ON THE NERVOUS SYSTEM (without medicine) of Spasmodic, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental & Physical Incapacity, Impure Blood, etc., also Gonorrhea, Eruptions, etc., and the means of curing them by the use of the Bitters.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

HOSTETTER'S.

CELEBRATED

Stomach Bitters.

A pure and powerful tonic, corrects and alleviates of wonderful effects in disease of the Stomach.

Liver and bowels. Cures Dyspepsia. Liver complaint. Headache. General Debility. Nervousness. Depression of Spirits. Loss of Appetite. Cuts. Intermittent Fevers. Cramps and Spasms and all

Complaints of either sex arising from bodily weakness, whether hereditary or acquired, or produced by special causes. Nothing that is not wholesome food and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare and simple herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forewarned against disease, and, for the human system, can be protected by human means against no other agent than the Bitters.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found that this is a preventive and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge, and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance are cured by a brief course of this marvellous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being placed with Bitters for months in vain, are finally cured with that dangerous ailment, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak Stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and excretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Losses of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agency of BILIOUS COLIC is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produces effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated.

In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Prostration, Decay and Debility and Degeneracy arising from Old Age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases, it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-energize and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is

being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present in most of the ordinary tonics and stimulants of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly called, deservedly popular, as Hostetter's Bitters.

Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pa. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and storekeepers everywhere.
